

INCOMARS SOFTWARE SERVICES

Privacy Policy

Last revised: February 6, 2022

Welcome to the Incomars.com Privacy Policy!

1. Please read carefully

Incomars.com cares deeply about the privacy of its visitors and users. To that end, this Privacy Policy (“Privacy Policy”) describes how Incomars.com , together with its working companies worldwide (“Incomars”, “we”, “our”, or “us”), collect, use, and share your Personal Information, as well as an explanation of the data rights you may have in that Personal Information. This Privacy Policy applies to all Incomars users, including unregistered visitors, registered users, and premium users (collectively, “Users”, “you”, or “your”), and to all Incomars services, including our websites (including www.incomars.com and any of its subdomains, the “Website”), web applications (“Incomars Apps”), mobile applications (“Mobile Apps”), and related services (collectively, the “Services”). This Privacy Policy is not intended to override the terms of any contract you have with us, nor any rights you may have under other applicable data privacy laws. Prior to accessing or using our Services, please read this policy and make sure you fully understand our practices in relation to your Personal Information. If you read and fully understand this Privacy Policy, and remain opposed to our practices, you must immediately leave and discontinue all use of any of our Services. If you have any questions or concerns regarding this policy, please contact us here. This policy describes our privacy practices – what Personal Information we collect about our Users, what we do with it, how we share it, and your rights regarding that Personal Information.

By accessing or using any of our Services, you acknowledge that you have read this Privacy Policy.

2. What ‘Personal Information’ do we collect?

2.1. User information:

To provide you the Services, we must collect Personal Information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (“Personal Information”). We collect Personal Information you provide us, from your use of the Services, and from other sources. Here are the types of Personal Information we collect about you: Information you provide us. When you register for our Services, purchase and/or register domain names, use any of our Services; and/or when you contact us directly by any communication channel (e.g., Incomars's support tickets, emails), you may provide us Personal Information, such as name, email address, phone number, payment information (for Users with Paid Services), information you include in your communications with us and with other users on our platform, and Personal Information contained in scanned identification documents (such as an ID card, driver's license, passport, or official company registration documents). Information we collect when you use the Services. When you visit, download, and/or use any of our Services, we may collect aggregated usage Personal Information, such as Visitors' and Users' browsing and 'click-stream' activity on the Services, session heatmaps and scrolls, non-identifying Personal Information regarding the Visitor's or User's device, operating system, internet browser, screen resolution, language and keyboard settings, internet service provider, referring/exit pages, date/time stamps, etc. Information we collect from other sources. We may receive Personal Information about you from third-party sources, such as i) security providers , fraud detection and prevention providers for example to help us screen out users associated with fraud, ii) social media platforms, when you log-in or sign-up using your social media account, we may receive Personal Information from that service (e.g., your username, basic profile Personal Information) and in some cases, we may collect Personal Information from lead enhancement companies which help us to improve our service offering; iii) advertising and marketing partners in order to monitor, manage and measure our ad campaigns.

To provide our Services, we collect Personal Information about our Users.

The Personal Information comes from you when you visit or use our services, Personal Information we collect automatically, and Personal Information we collect from other sources.

2.2. Users of users 'Personal Information'

We may also collect Personal Information pertaining to visitors and users of our User's websites or services ("Users-of-Users"), solely for and on our Users' behalf (as further described in Section ?6 below).

2.3. Incomars Ordering information

We also collect information that is provided to us by Incomars Ordering forms ("Order For Software"), when they apply to any of the open positions published at <https://www.incomars.com/>, by e-mail or otherwise (as further described in Section ?15 below).

3. Why do we collect such 'Personal Information'

We use your Personal Information for the following purposes:

To provide and operate the Services; To further develop, customize, expand, and improve our Services, based on Users' common or personal preferences, experiences and difficulties; To provide our Users with ongoing customer assistance and technical support; To be able to contact our Users with general or personalized service-related notices and promotional messages (as further detailed in Section 8 below); To help us to update, expand and analyze our records to identify new customers; To facilitate, sponsor, and offer certain contests, events, and promotions, determine participants' eligibility, monitor performance, contact winners, and grant prizes and benefits; To analyze our performance and marketing activities; To create aggregated statistical data and other aggregated and/or inferred information, which we or our business partners may use to provide and improve our respective services; To provide you with professional assistance , only upon your request; To enhance our data security and fraud prevention capabilities; and To comply with any applicable laws and regulations.

We use your Personal Information for the purposes set out in Section 3 where: Our use of your Personal Information is necessary to perform a contract or to take steps to enter into a contract with you (e.g. to provide you with a website, to provide you with our customer assistance and technical support); Our use of your Personal Information is necessary to comply with a relevant legal or regulatory obligation that we have; or Our use of your Personal Information is necessary to support legitimate interests and business purposes (for example, to maintain and improve our Services and the effectiveness of Incomars by identifying technical issues), provided it is conducted in a way that is proportionate and that respects your privacy rights.

We use the Personal Information we collect about you to provide our services and make them better and safer.

We also collect and use Personal Information in order to contact Users and to comply with the laws applicable to us.

4. How we share your 'Personal Information'

We may share your Personal Information with service providers and others (or otherwise allow them access to it) in the following manners and instances:

Third Party Service Providers: Incomars has a number of selected service providers ("Included our own service providing websites"), whose services and solutions complement, facilitate and enhance our own. These include hosting and server co-location services, communications and content delivery networks (CDNs), data and cyber security services, billing and payment processing services, domain name registrars, fraud detection and prevention services, web analytics, e-mail distribution and monitoring services, session recording and remote access services, performance measurement, data optimization and marketing services, content providers, and our legal and financial advisors (collectively, "Third Party Service Provider(s)").

Incomars may share the following categories of Personal Information with Third Party Service Providers for a business purpose:

identifiers, including name, alias, postal address, unique personal identifier, online identifier, internet protocol address, email address, account name, or other similar identifiers.

commercial Personal Information, for example Personal Information regarding products or services purchased, obtained, or considered.

We may share the Personal Information of our Users and Users-of-Users with various third parties, including certain service providers and law enforcement officials.

The Personal Information may be shared solely in accordance with this policy.

Law Enforcement, Legal Requests and Duties: Incomars may disclose or otherwise allow access to any categories of your Personal Information described in this Privacy Policy pursuant to a legal request, such as a subpoena, legal proceedings, search warrant or court order, or in compliance with applicable laws, if we have a good faith belief that the law requires us to do so, with or without notice to you.

Protecting Rights and Safety: Incomars may share any categories of your Personal Information described in this Privacy Policy if we believe in good faith that this will help protect the rights, property or personal safety of Incomars, any of our Users, any Users-of-Users, or any member of the general public, with or without notice to you.

4.3.

Incomars Subsidiaries and Working Companies: We may share your Personal Information internally within our family of companies, for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy. For example, we may share your Personal Information with Incomars.com , our Networking subsidiary, in the course of facilitating and providing you (and your Users-of-Users) with our Services.

Sharing Personal Information by Incomars subsidiaries and working companies in India, other countries with the Incomars's subsidiaries located outside these regions will only take place under an approved transfer mechanism, such as the relevant Standard Contractual Clauses.

In connection with a change in corporate control: In addition, should Incomars or any of its working companies undergo any change in control, including by means of merger, acquisition or purchase of substantially all of its assets, your Personal Information may be shared with the parties involved in such event.

Upon Your Further Direction: The Incomars Services enable you, through different techniques, to engage and procure various third party services, products and tools for enhancing your web or mobile sites, including, without limitation, applications and widgets offered to you by third parties through the Incomars Website (including the Incomars Products or Products), eCommerce payment providers, third party designers who may assist you with your website, etc. (collectively, "Third Party Services"). If you choose to engage with such Third Party Services, they may have access to and process Personal Information of your Users-of-Users collected through your web or mobile sites. For example:

a) Framed Pages: our Services may enable you to integrate Third Party Services directly into your web or mobile sites, such as via page framing techniques to serve content to or from Third Party Services or other parties (“Frames”). In these circumstances, the Third Party Services may collect Personal Information from your Users-of-Users.

b) App Developers: We allow third party developers (“Third Party Developer(s)”) to develop applications for you (“Third Party App(s)”) to Users (“Mostly Apps are developed by Incomars.com's App Developers”), which you may integrate into your web or mobile sites. Each Third Party Developer can't contact you directly (“They can contact to you via Incomars.com”), which among other things, restricts the ways in which such developers may access, store, share, and use the Personal Information you and/or your Users-of-Users provide to them.

c) Social Media Features: Our Services may enable you to integrate certain Social Media features (“Multi Media Services or Social Networking Platform”) and single sign in or (“Sign Up”) features, such as “Facebook Connect,” or “Google Sign-in” (“Social Media Features”) into your web or mobile sites. These Social Media Features may collect certain Personal Information from your Users-of-Users such as identifiers, including name, alias, unique personal identifier, online identifier, internet protocol address, email address, or other similar identifiers. Social Media Features are hosted either by a third party or directly on our Services.

Please note that in the examples listed above in this Section 4.6, Incomars merely acts as an intermediary platform allowing you to procure the services of such Third Party Services (including, but not limited to, Third Party Developers, Third Party Apps and Social Media Features) with which you are interacting directly, and at your discretion. In this respect, Incomars acts as a service provider to you, disclosing information to the Third Party Services on your behalf. Incomars will share your Users-of-Users' Personal Information with Third Parties Services only upon your direction or with your permission and is not, and shall not be, in any way responsible for such Third Party Services processing of such Personal Information, or liable with respect thereto.

Incomars does not control and is not responsible for the actions or policies of any Third Party Service, and your use of any Third Party Service is at your own risk. We encourage you to review any privacy policy accompanying a Third Party Service and ask such Third Party Service for any clarifications you may need before deciding to install and/or use their services.

5. How do we store your 'Personal Information'?

Users-of-Users such as identifiers. We may use other jurisdictions as necessary for the proper delivery of our Services and/or as may be required by law.

Incomars.com is based in India. which is considered as Software Services Company with Business Solutions ("Subsidiaries") for ("Business, Profession & Social Networking")

Incomars.com's working companies and Third-Party Service Providers that store or process your Personal Information on Incomars's behalf are contractually committed to keep it protected and secured, in accordance with industry standards and regardless of any lesser legal requirements which may apply in their jurisdiction.

Transfer of EU Personal data : If you are located in Europe, when we will transfer your Personal Information to the United States or anywhere outside Europe, we will make sure that (i) there is a level of protection deemed adequate by the European Commission or (ii) that the relevant Standard Contractual Clauses are in place.

5.2.

We may store and process Personal Information in India or other jurisdictions, whether by ourselves or with the help of our Working Companies and service providers.

Incomars's data storage providers are contractually committed to protect and secure your data.

Among other things, Incomars will ensure that there is the adequate level of protection or that relevant Standard Contractual Clauses are in place for the international transfer of our EU users' data.

In compliance with the Privacy Shield Principles, Incomars.com commits to resolve complaints about our collection or use of your personal information.

6. Users-of-users' 'Personal Information'

Incomars may collect, store and process certain Personal Information of Users-of-Users ("Users-of-Users Information"), solely on our Users' behalf and at their direction. For example, each of our Users is able to import their e-mail contacts from third-party services like Gmail, or otherwise collect and manage contacts via their User Website. Such contacts are then stored with Incomars, on the User's behalf.

For such purposes, Incomars serves and shall be considered as a "Processor" and not as the "Controller" of such Users-of-Users Information.

The Users controlling and operating such User Websites shall be considered as the "Controllers" of such Users-of-Users Information, and are responsible for complying with all laws and regulations that may apply to the collection and control of such Users-of-Users Information, including all privacy and data protection laws of all relevant jurisdictions.

You are responsible for the security, integrity and authorized usage of Personal Information about Users-of-Users', and for obtaining consents, permissions and providing any required data subject rights and fair processing notices required for the collection and usage of such Personal Information.

Incomars cannot provide legal advice to Users or their Users-of-Users, however we do recommend that all Users can request and maintain clear and comprehensive privacy policies on their User Websites in accordance with any applicable laws and regulations, and that all Users-of-Users carefully read those policies and make sure that they understand and, to the extent required by applicable law, consent to them.

For more information on how Users-of-Users Personal Information may be handled by Incomars (which may be relevant for any specific notice you provide to and/or consent you obtain from your Users-of-Users), please see Sections 4, 12 and 13.

If you are a visitor, user or customer of any of our Users, please read the following: Incomars has no direct relationship with Users-of-Users whose Personal Information it processes. If you are a visitor, user or customer of any of our Users, and would like to make any requests or queries regarding your Personal Information, please contact such User(s) directly. For example, if you wish to request access, correct, amend, or delete inaccurate Personal Information processed by Incomars on behalf of its Users, please direct your query to the relevant User (who is the “Controller” of such data). If Incomars is requested by our Users to remove any Users-of-Users’ Personal Information, we will respond to such requests in a timely manner upon verification and in accordance with applicable law

(for example, thirty (30) days under the GDPR). Unless otherwise instructed by our User, we will retain their Users-of-Users' Personal Information for the period set forth in Section 12 below.

Incomars may collect and process Personal Information regarding the users of our users.

We do this solely on our users' behalf, and at their direction.

Our users are solely responsible for their users-of-users information, including for its legality, security and integrity.

Incomars has no direct relationship with any of its users' users. If you are a user-of-user, please contact the Website owner directly.

7. Use of cookies and other third-party technologies

We and our Third Party Service Providers use cookies and other similar technologies ("Cookies") in order for us to provide our Service and ensure that it performs properly, to analyze our performance and marketing activities, and to personalize your experience.

You can learn more about how we use cookies and similar technologies and how you can exercise control over them in our Cookie Policy.

Please note that we do not change our practices in response to a "Do Not Track" signal in the HTTP header from a browser or mobile application, however, most browsers allow you to control cookies, including whether or not to accept them and how to remove them. You may set most browsers to notify you if you receive a cookie, or you may choose to block cookies with your browser.

We and certain third party services may use cookies and similar tracking technologies throughout our services.

These technologies are used mostly for stability, security, functionality, performance and advertising purposes.

8. Communications from Incomars

8.1. Promotional messages

We may use your Personal Information to send you promotional content and messages by e-mail, text messages, notifications within our platform, marketing calls and similar forms of communication from Incomars or our partners (acting on Incomars's behalf) through such means.

If you do not wish to receive such promotional messages or calls, you may notify Incomars at any time or follow the "unsubscribe" or STOP instructions contained in the promotional communications you receive.

We may send you promotional messages and content.

You can easily opt-out of receiving promotional messages by contacting us or unsubscribing.

8.2. Service and billing messages

Incomars may also contact you with important information regarding our Services, or your use thereof. For example, we may send you a notice (through any of the means available to us) if a certain Service is temporarily suspended for maintenance; reply to your support ticket or e-mail; send you reminders or warnings regarding upcoming or late payments for your current or upcoming subscriptions; forward abuse complaints regarding your User Website; or notify you of material changes in our Services.

It is important that you are always able to receive such messages. For this reason, you are not able to opt-out of receiving such Service and Billing Messages unless you are no longer a Incomars User (which can be done by deactivating your account).

We may also contact you with service and billing-related messages and content. You will not be able to opt-out of receiving such messages.

9. Your rights in relation to your 'Personal Information'

Incomars believes that it is imperative that all Incomars users have control over their Personal Information. Therefore, depending on the way you use the Incomars Services, you may have the right to request access to, receive a copy of, update, amend or delete, port certain Personal Information to another service, restrict, or object to certain uses of your Personal Information (for example, for direct marketing purposes). Further, when we rely on your consent for processing of your Personal Information (for instance, for direct marketing) you can withdraw your consent at any time, and such withdrawal will take effect from thereon.

Incomars will not charge you more if you exercise any of these rights and will continue to provide you with the same level of service.

If you are a Incomars user, you can access and correct a lot of your Personal Information directly through your account, or via online forms Incomars makes available to you (as detailed below). You can also exercise your rights by sending your request to Incomars.com, mailing it to Incomars.com, or reaching out to our customer care department. When we receive your right request, we may take steps to verify your identity before complying with the request to protect your privacy and security.

Before fulfilling your request, we may ask you for additional information in order to confirm your identity and for security purposes. We reserve the right to charge a fee where permitted by law (e.g. if your request is unfounded or excessive).

You have the right to file a complaint with your local supervisory authority for data protection (but we still recommend that you contact us first).

If you are a Incomars User, and you wish to receive a copy, access and/or request us to make corrections to the Personal Information that you have stored with us (either yours or your Users-of-Users'), or wish to request a list of what Personal Information (if any) pertaining to you we disclosed to third parties for direct marketing purposes, please follow the instructions provided in these Help Center articles: "Retrieving Your Incomars Account Data" or "Permanently Deleting Your Incomars Account". You can also mail your request to Incomars.com. We will make reasonable efforts to honor your request promptly (unless we require further information from you in order to fulfill your request), subject to legal and other permissible considerations.

Please note that permanently deleting your Incomars account erases all of your Personal Information from Incomars's databases. After completing this process, you can no longer use any of your Incomars Services, your account and all its data will be removed permanently, and Incomars will not be able to restore your account or retrieve your data in the future. If you contact our support channels in the future, the system will not recognize your account and support agents will not be able to locate the deleted account.

When it comes to your Personal Information you stored with us, you have the right to: access, receive a copy of, update, amend or delete your Personal Information?, enjoy data portability (in certain cases) restrict, or object to certain uses of your Personal Information, withdraw consent you've given us before to processing.

Just reach out to us by e-mail, mail or through our customer care team, or, when available, fill out our dedicated form.

You may also correct and/or update your Personal Information through your user account, if you have one.

You can also delete your Personal Information by deleting your entire account. We will respond to your requests within a reasonable timeframe.

10. Right to Know: If you want to exercise your right to know or receive a copy or access the Personal Information that you have stored with us, please follow the instructions provided in this Help Center article: <"Retrieving Your Incomars Account Data">, which explains how you can retrieve your Personal Information directly from within your Incomars account. Alternatively, you can also submit a request to access your Personal Information through this web form, by submitting a request by contact us at Incomars.com ("Incomars Website").

Right to Deletion: If you want to exercise your right to request deletion of any of your Personal Information that you have stored with us, please follow the instructions provided in this Help Center article: <"Permanently Deleting Your Incomars Account">, which explains how to delete your Personal Information that you can access directly through your User account. You can also choose to submit a request to delete all your Personal Information (including information accessible via your User account and any other Personal Information we hold about you) through this web form, by submitting a request by contact us at Incomars.com.

Once we receive and verify your consumer request, we will delete your personal information from our records unless an exception applies. We will make reasonable efforts to honor your request promptly and consistent with requirements under applicable law.

Please note that permanently deleting your Incomars account erases all of your Personal Information from Incomars's databases. After completing this process, you can no longer use any of your Incomars Services, your account, and all its data will be removed permanently, and Incomars will not be able to restore your account or retrieve your data in the future. Additionally, if you contact our support channels in the future, the system will not recognize your account, and support agents will not be able to locate the deleted account.

If you cannot access your Incomars account or if you wish to exercise your rights through an authorized agent operating on your behalf, you, or your authorized agent (as applicable) may send a request to contact us at Incomars.com or reach out to our customer care department, including by requesting a callback from a customer care expert. To process your request, in order to protect Users' accounts and Personal Information, we may ask you or your authorized agent for the verifying information detailed above, which may vary according to the circumstances of your request. Authorized agents will also need to provide Incomars with a copy of the consumer's signed authorization designating them as their agent.

Incomars does NOT sell your Personal Information or your customers' Personal Information (Users-of-Users) to third parties.

11. Questions and complaints

If you have any questions or concerns about our collection, use or disclosure of Personal Information, or if you believe that we have not complied with this Privacy Policy or applicable data protection laws, please contact us – Incomars.com ("Incomars Website or INCOMARS SOFTWARE SERVICES").

Our Data Protection Officer team will investigate the complaint and determine whether a breach has occurred and what action, if any, to take. We take every privacy complaint seriously and will make all reasonable efforts to resolve your complaint promptly and in accordance with applicable law.

You can file a complaint with your local supervisory authority for data protection at any time, however we recommend that you contact us first so we can try to resolve it.

12. Data retention

We may retain your Personal Information (as well as your Users-of-Users' Personal Information) for as long as your User Account is active, as indicated in this Privacy Policy, or as otherwise needed to provide you with our Services.

We may continue to retain your Personal Information after you deactivate your User Account and/or cease to use any particular Services, as reasonably necessary to comply with our legal obligations, to resolve disputes regarding our Users or their Users-of-Users, prevent fraud and abuse, enforce our agreements and/or protect our legitimate interests.

We maintain a data retention policy which we apply to Personal Information in our care.

We may keep your Personal Information for as long as your account is active, and longer as needed (for example, if we are legally obligated to keep it longer, or need it to protect our interests).

13. Security

Incomars has implemented security measures designed to protect the Personal Information you share with us, including physical, electronic and procedural measures. Among other things, we offer HTTPS secure access to most areas on our Services; the transmission of sensitive payment information (such as a credit card number) through our designated purchase forms is protected by an industry standard SSL/TLS encrypted connection; and we regularly maintain a PCI DSS (Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards) certification. We also regularly monitor our systems for possible vulnerabilities and attacks, and regularly seek new ways and Third Party Services for further enhancing the security of our Services and protection of our Visitors' and Users' privacy.

Regardless of the measures and efforts taken by Incomars, we cannot and do not guarantee the absolute protection and security of your Personal Information, your Users-of-Users' Personal Information or any other information you upload, publish or otherwise share with Incomars or anyone else. We encourage you to set strong passwords for your User Account and User Website, and avoid providing us or anyone with any sensitive Personal Information of which you believe its disclosure could cause you substantial or irreparable harm.

Furthermore, because certain areas on our Services are less secure than others (for example, if you set your Support forum ticket to be "Public" instead of "Private", or if you browse to a non-SSL page), and since e-mail and instant messaging are not recognized as secure forms of communications, we request and encourage you not to share any Personal Information on any of these areas or via any of these methods.

If you have any questions regarding the security of our Services, you are welcome to contact us here.

Incomars values the security of our customers' Personal Information and we do everything in our power to protect it.

However, as we can't guarantee absolute protection – we encourage you to be careful, set a strong password for your account, and avoid submitting any sensitive information which, if exposed, could cause you major harm.

14. Third-party websites

Our Services may contain links to other websites or services. We are not responsible for such websites' or services' privacy practices. We encourage you to be aware when you leave our Services and to read the privacy statements of each and every website and service you visit before providing your Personal Information. This Privacy Policy does not apply to such linked third party websites and services.

Our Services may contain links to other websites or services.

15. Incomars Developer's Information

Incomars welcomes all qualified Applicants to apply to any of the open positions published, by sending us their contact details and CV (“Developer's Information”) via the relevant Position Application Form on our Website, or through any other means provided by us.

We understand that privacy and discreteness are crucial to our developers, and are committed to keep Developer's Personal Information private and use it solely for Incomars's internal recruitment purposes (including for identifying Applicants, evaluating their applications, making hiring and employment decisions, and contacting Applicants by phone or in writing).

If you previously submitted your Developer's Personal Information to Incomars, and now wish to access it, update it or have it deleted from Incomars's systems, please contact us at <https://www.incomars.com/> ("Incomars.com or Incomars Website").

We welcome all qualified job seekers to apply to any of our open positions, by sending us their contact details and message at Incomars ("Incomars.com").

We will use such Personal Information solely for our internal recruitment, employment and business purposes.

16. Public forums and user content ("Third-Party Services are also included in it")

Our Services offer publicly accessible blogs, communities and support forums. Please be aware that any Personal Information you provide in any such areas may be read, collected, and used by others who access them. To request removal of your Personal Information from our blogs, communities or forums, feel free to contact us here. In some cases, we may not be able to remove your Personal Information from such areas. For example, if you use a third party application to post a comment (e.g., the Facebook social plugin application) while logged in to your related profile with such third party, you must login into such application or contact its provider if you want to remove the Personal Information you posted on that platform.

In any event, we advise against posting any Personal Information (via any means) you don't wish to publicize.

If you upload any user content to your User Account or post it on your User Website and provide it in any other way as part of the use of any Service, you do so at your own risk.

We have put adequate security measures in place to protect your Personal Information. However, we cannot control the actions of other Users or members of the public who may access your User Content, and are not responsible for the circumvention of any privacy settings or security measures you or we may have placed on your User Website (including, for instance, password-protected areas on your User Website). You understand and acknowledge that, even after its removal by you or us, copies of User Content may remain viewable in cached and archived pages or if any third parties (including any of your Users-of-Users) have copied or stored such User Content. To clarify, we advise against uploading or posting any information you do not wish to be public.

Avoid posting any Personal Information to any of the public areas on our Services, or to your own website, if you don't want it to become publicly available.

17. Updates and interpretation

We may update this Privacy Policy as required by applicable law, and to reflect changes to our Personal Information collection, usage and storage practices. If we make any changes that we deem as "material" (in our sole good faith discretion), we will notify you (using one of the notification methods set forth in Section 15.3 of the Terms of Use) prior to the change becoming effective. In relation to any updated Privacy Policy, we will, as required by applicable law, notify you, seek your consent and/or take any other measures. We encourage you to periodically review this page for the latest Information on our privacy practices. Unless stated otherwise, our most current Privacy Policy applies to all information that we have about you and your Users-of-Users, with respect to our Website, Incomars Apps, Mobile Apps and other Services.

Any heading, caption or section title contained herein, and any explanation or summary under the right "Below text" column, is provided only for convenience, and in no way defines or explains any section or provision hereof, or legally binds any of us in any way.

This Privacy Policy was written in English, and may be translated into other languages for your convenience ("Auto-Detect by your Browser's Default Language"). You may access and view other language versions by changing your Incomars Website ("Incomars.com"). If a translated (non-English) version of this Privacy Policy conflicts in any way with its English version, the provisions of the English version shall prevail. We may change this policy at any time. We will notify you of changes as required by applicable law.

Only the left column is legally binding (this column is just for clarity).

Translated (non-English) versions of these terms are provided for convenience only.

18. Contacting us

If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy or wish to exercise any of your rights as described in Sections 9 or 10 please refer to those sections or contact the Data Protection Officer team here. We will attempt to resolve any complaints regarding the use of your Personal Information in accordance with this Privacy Policy.
